HAPPY NEW YEAR

1987

Not long after Christmas in each CBC house
The Captain was grumbling and so was his spouse.
The tree decorations were snug in a box
And the chocolates gone from the Christmas socks.
With but one big game left on the T V screen
And America's Cup too late to be seen
I, in my woolies to beat the cold snap,
Had curled up on the sofa to take a wee nap.
Then down in the hall there arose such a bark
That from a sound snooze I awoke with a start!
The dog had attacked the year's first newsletter
But suddenly ... I felt much, much better!
It was time to plan the sailing season!
Now, once again, life had a reason!

At the Bay Ridge Clubhouse on February first
There'd be a keg of beer to assuage my thirst.
It said to bring a good dish to share
With the rest of the planners who would gather there
At one o'clock in the afternoon
To talk of sailing in May and June.
The weekend fun for C. B. C.
Would be carefully planned at this jamboree,
So it said "Come join in! Try not to be late!
And don't forget two bucks for the plate."
If I had boating things or surplus gear
I should bring it along to the meeting this year.
If it was too large, say a dinghy or sail,
I could bring a description of what was for sale.

With visions of goodies to spruce up my boat,
Or things that would bring greater comfort afloat,
I marked down the date and resumed my snooze
And dreamed of the first Bristol Club Cruise!

THE GREAT C.B.C. ^{}ESP^{} SESSION!

To reach the Bay Ridge Civic Association Clubhouse by land, head east on Forest Drive (Rt. 665) from Rt. #2 at Parole. Keep going straight and go past 9 (count 'em) traffic lights from #2 and you will be on Bay Ridge Road. Go through the Bay Ridge gates and continue for .4 mi. Take the first left onto East Lake Drive. Bear right at the bottom of the hill and go .4 mi. more. The sign for the clubhouse is on the left. There's plenty of parking!

a Fabulous Final Fete

Our Fall Dinner at the Governor Calvert House was an elegant affair! The restored Historic Inn held several surprises with a glass floored room giving a glimpse of the colonial foundations and a contemporary atrium that formed a link between old and new. The setting was lovely and the buffet a real feast. After dinner when all that lovely silver had been presented to our speediest boats and Commodore Marcia Outerbridge handed over the helm to our Commodore for 1987, Norm Borgarde, we were treated to a "Sabbatical" cruise from Annapolis to the Pacific islands (vicariously!) in the lovely slides and fascinating narration of new member John Stuntz.

Thirty Three Boats were represented that night by their crews who were all dressed up and as elegant as the setting! Andy and Jane Andrews, Art and Herta Baitch, John Banbury, Dick and Ruth Boecker and Family, Norm and Sandra Bogarde, Fred and Jamie Breckenridge, Mal and Arlene Druskin, Bob and Jean Eaton, Gene Ehrlich and a lovely guest from New Jersey, Alma, Arnold and Beverly Feldman, Bill and Beryl Flynn, Henry and Alice Good, Joel and Jeanne Gross, Joe and Jay Heidel, Hak and Adele Kauffman, Hunter and Shirley Kennard, Maury and Phyllis Keiser, Bill and Shirley Kirby, Charlie and Nancy MacNeill, Sam and Nancy Mattingly, John McLaughlin, Monty and Hilda Montgomery, Mike Nathans and Marcia Goldstein-Nathans, Tom and Marcia Outerbridge, Jeff and Carolyn Serfass, Bill and Ann Sieling, Claude and Teri Stripling, Ed Stana and Cindy Fuller, Tom and Judy Taylor, George and Janet Theall, Eric and Nancy Weber, Dick and May Wells.... all enjoyed the "cruise" and found it a fitting finale to the fantastic festive feast that closed our CBC season.

MESSAGE FROM THE COMMODORE

Many thanks for the vote of confidence and for the opportunity to serve as your Commodore in 1987. Now that the planning season is underway, I'm developing a better understanding of the numerous and varied duties of the Commodore. Fortunately, assisting me with those duties is an enthusiastic group of committee chairman and an equally dedicated Board of Directors all committed to making 1987 another successful year for the CBC.

The actual responsibility for success, however, rests with you the members. Only through your support and participation is real success attainable. This year, I will be emphasizing participation not only by making the annual appeal for more racers, but by encouraging better participation in all events. Numerous ideas are already on the agenda for the annual planning meeting; but there are more and perhaps better ideas out there among you the members. So on February 1st, let's set our course, trim those committees and get this club sailing on its lines toward the best season ever.
