VOLUME 15
ISSUE 1

JAN/FEB, 1989

The groundhog stirs and rubs his eyes
And pops forth from his lair
Regardless of cloudy or sunny skies
Spring is eventually there.

And CBC sailors are feeling the call
Of wind and waters blue.
In hibernation since last fall,
Their boats will pop forth too!

It's time to plan for a summer day
for parties, games and fun.
So come to Lake Ogleton by the Bay.
Come each and every one!

The Bay Ridge Clubhouse at 12 o'clock
On February 12 toll the bell.
Bring a hatch, a sail, some oars or a block,
Or some "Fleas" you'd like to sell.

For just two dollars per person (not boat)
The CBC will provide
Icy cold beer to tickle your throat
And hot chicken to fill your inside.

Bring a favorite goodie, dessert or dish
For your sailing chums to share.
Plates and cups and the tools you wish
Will await you there.

Check the calendar, ponder the dates
And come prepared to vote.
Bring your friends, your kids and mates.
But you won't need your boat.

It's the FIFTEENTH YEAR of CBC
And we'll plan a bang up year.
We're going to have a jamboree
We hope everyone will be here!

PRE-SEASON PLANNING PARTY !!

A MESSAGE FROM THE COMMODORE ★★☆☆

The 1989 season is the Chesapeake Bristol Club's 15TH ANNIVERSARY, and.....

WE'RE GONNA CELEBRATE !!!

But first, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Nancy Weber, our past Commodore '88, for such a steady and guiding hand on the helm last season. Nancy deserves a lot of credit for her fine organizational skills and attention to detail which helped make CBC's '88 season the fine and enjoyable one it was. Thanks to Nancy and her Board of Trustees and Committee Directors, the new events of last year including the Week Cruise and Rendezvous at the Perry Cabin Inn were well received and thoroughly enjoyed by all those in attendance. Nancy and Eric's hospitality at the Baltimore Engineer Club made our Fall Dinner a most enjoyable event. Membership for '88 was solid, participation was up, and CBC's finances are healthy.

During the six years of my membership in CBC, I have observed the Club change in some subtle, but key respects. Notably, participation in the racing program is down and our membership is increasingly coming from non-Bristol owners (albeit existing CBC Bristol-owner-members who have traded to non-Bristols). While neither of these changes pose a crisis for CBC, I believe that the continued good health of our Club requires that we respond to our membership with emphasis on those events which reflect the majority interests of the membership while not losing our traditions. Yet we must keep in mind that it is the people which make our Club what it is; whether they race or not, and whether they own Bristols now or not.

Through our common interest in sailing, the Chesapeake Bristol Club enjoys a unique blend of cordiality, friendship, and memorable experiences. And while we are certainly one of the more notable and active clubs on the Chesapeake, our members seem to have that special easy going, quick to share-a-beer or come alongside, outgoing perspective which makes it so much fun to join our races, raft-ups, and shore parties.

I encourage all members to view CBC's being what it is today as a culmination of our collective interest, input, and participation.

It is appropriate for me to introduce the Flag Officers, Board of Trustees, and Committee Directors for 1989 at this time:

Committees

My objectives as Commodore for 1989 include:

Increasing membership of both Bristol owners and friends of present members.

Increasing membership participation in our calendar of events through new and exciting programs. To the extent that you will review the calendar at the beginning of the season, set aside the CBC dates, and respond promptly to reservation requests (for events like the Dinners and Feasts which require pre-ordering of food), this will greatly relieve the pressures on the Social Director and Treasurer. Also, CBC members will be assured of seeing as many of their sailing friends at our gatherings as they would hope to. Phone reminders worked well last year to turn out participation, but it is hoped that the special elements of this year's events will be even more inviting;

Improving support and involvement of Bristol Yachts Company and the local Bristol Yachts dealer;

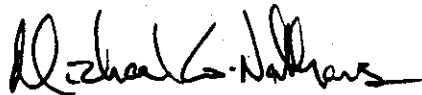

Improving participation in the racing program through fewer races, shorter courses, interesting destinations, and novelty courses;

Increasing the 'yachting public's' awareness of CBC, and;

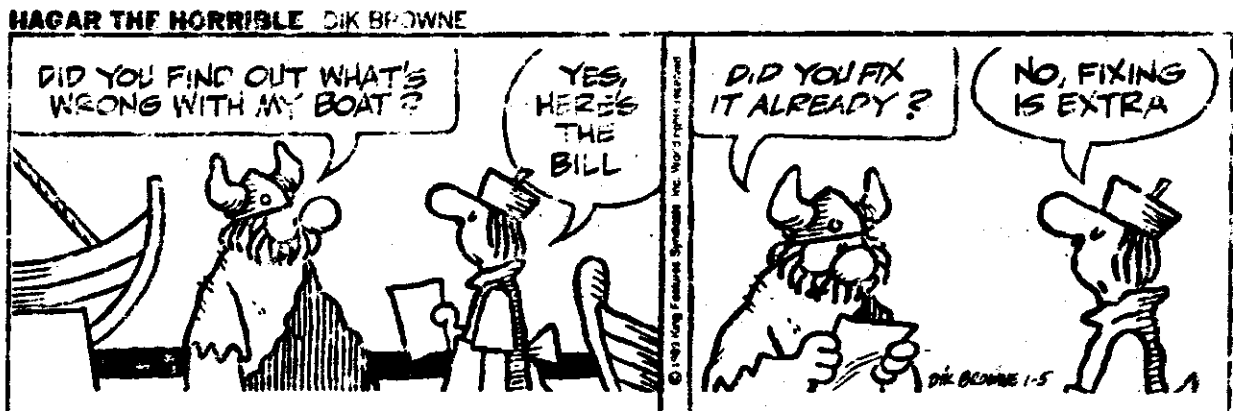

Continuing the Traditions which have made our Club what it is today.

The Chesapeake Bristol Club has an energetic and dedicated group of Officers, Board, and Committee Directors this season. We are interested in your ideas, input, and participation, and we look forward to another fun year with all of our CBC friends.

All the best in '89 !

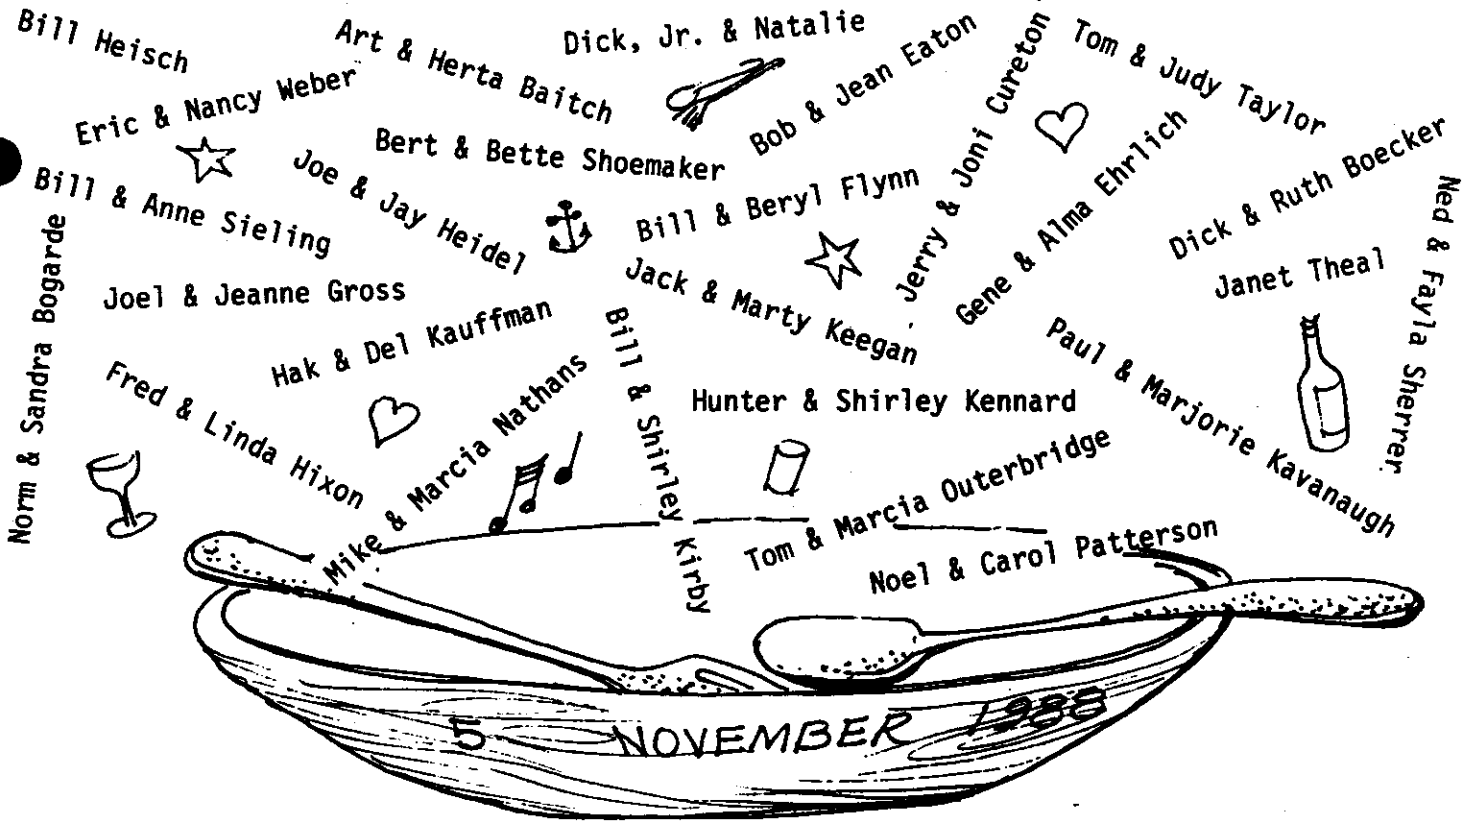

Michael G. Nathans
Commodore

The scene was straight from the 1890s as elegantly costumed couples entered the grand foyer of the gracious and grandiose mansion that is now the home of the Engineering Society of Baltimore. At the bottom of a graceful curving stair our private dining room rang with the sounds of Bristol Ladies and Gentlemen celebrating the final event of a wonderful season. Each table was graced with a bottle of wine.. a delightful gift to all from Eric Weber. After toasting the retiring Commodore, Nancy, and piping aboard Mike Nathans and his merry crew, and the tenacious and intrepid racers all had received their just (?) rewards in the form of awe inspiring silver, the diners were treated to a multi-media show titled "Four Seasons on the Chesapeake". This was another spectacular production by our own Joe Heidel and his friends Dave and Clare Albrecht. There was a fascinating encore as well.. a portrait of Jay Heidel, lovingly produced by Joe , in honor of her birthday.

The CBC Recipe for a perfect party:

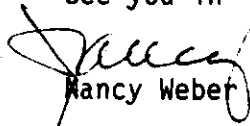

Take these folks, mix well, place in lovely surroundings, toss in a few cocktails, serve a wonderful dinner, sprinkle with lots of good cheer... and you'll have a wonderful time... which we ALL did!

COMING! ON MARCH 18, 1989
ANOTHER ELEGANT EVENING!

As the helm changes and a new year begins, I'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their ideas, participation, help and support with the 1988 Bristol Club activities. It was a fun and enjoyable year.

See you in '89

Nancy Weber
