NOVEMBER 1989

October 14th was a beautiful fall day for eight CBC boats to head down the Bay with the migrating birds toward the cove at the Inn at Perry Cabin. The morning was breezeless but after noon it piped up a bit and by the middle of the afternoon was whistling right along.

COMPROMISE was an early arrival.. scooting right across from the Rhode River and soon DAPHNE, HIGH ADVENTURE, BLUE HERON, WHIM and EASTING DOWN were snugged up alongside at the pier. As the sun sank lower in the clear blue sky, the boaters gathered on the terrace for a libation (or two) and were joined by a flotilla of landlubbers. As BONKERS refused to leave the dock, the Kennards were forced to navigate by Honda. Dick and Natalie Boecker, to make a real weekend of it, booked a room in St. Michaels. Bert and Bette Shoemaker, Andy and Kathy Lewis, Don and Dottie Taylor, joined the crowd and Dick and May Wells drove a heck of a way to join us! Fayla Sherrer hitched a ride on BLUE HERON as Ned was off "defending our country". Paul and Marjorie Kavanaugh sailed into view in BROAD ARROW in time for a cocktail or two while the blue blazered parade marched to the dock to welcome CHANTEY.... just in time for dinner. Frank and Kathy Eisenhart joined us for a while, and we hope they'll join us again as we didn't get a chance to meet them!

As we were cocktailing and chatting a flight of geese, right on cue, flew low and directly overhead, honking their fall sonata.. and as we settled down to our supper the breeze stilled and the harvest moon, orange and full, rose through the trees and bathed the cove and lawns with a wonderful light.

It was late as we said our farewells and this night there were some special ones as Henry and Alice Good and Tom and Marcia Outerbridge would be setting off at dawn's early light on Sunday to head southward with the geese... eventual destination Bahamas... for Christmas! We expect great tales and pictures when we see you next summer and til then.. may your breezes be fair, and may God hold you in the palm of his hand!

● DON'T FORGET THE PARADE OF LIGHTS, DECEMBER 16TH
IN ANNAPOLIS ! DETAILS IN OUR NEXT ISSUE !

'Twas a spooky night in Baltimore town
and down by the water's side
Ten CBC boats were shuttered down for goblins were roaming outside!
At Bandaloops, in an upper room,
tables were spread for a feast.
There ghosts soon gathered, in from the gloom,
as the moon slid in the East.
Fayla Fall in her robe of leaves found a terrible talisman or two,
And some angelfish of make believe joined the fantastic crew.
Alma and Gene, buccaneers bold,
were out for a night on the town,
As was Hockey Star Ned, in from the cold,
our well equipped jock of renown.
O Great Pumpkin! Good grief! there were two that emerged from Blue Heron's hold.
A Hak Monster scarey made his debut with dame 'Del and her tresses of gold!
There appeared a Marge and a Jay Clown and a pig by the name of Joe,
A savoir faire pair with top hat and gown,
and a broad arrow matador, macho!
It was a high adventure for two great cats
when a couple of pirates came, at last,
And those two funny folk in their funny hats,
the Daphne clowns having a blast!
Then a great gorilla and a smaller one too sang chanteys to the crowd.
On the night of the ghosties' rendezvous even that was allowed!
They wined and dined until it was late,
this ghostly, ghastly crew,
Then slunk away before the day could reveal just who was who.
There was silence in the watery slips
as by Morpheus each was kissed,
And on Sunday morn ten haunted ships disappeared in the swirling mist.

To the Membership,

I would like to take the opportunity of this newsletter to publish in advance a motion that I intend to put before the membership at the annual (November) meeting. The bylaws provide for amendments to be proposed at that meeting. Specifically, I will propose that the notion of "Associate Members" be eliminated. There would only be "Voting Members" (those in good standing), and "Honorary Members" (as presently defined). And that the newly elected board of officers reword the bylaws before the 1990 Spring publication.

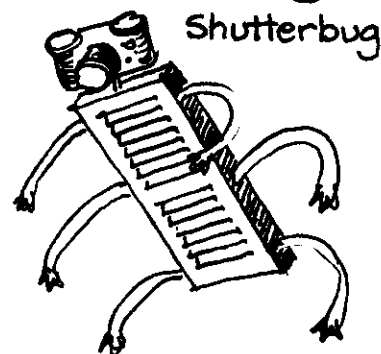

Notice:

Respectfully,

Bill Flynn

FALL DINNER PHOTO EXHIBIT

Since we know that some of our members (who shall go unnamed for now), have taken some good shots of the Club (because we've seen you doing it!), we propose a CBC PHOTO EXHIBITION for the Fall Dinner this year. Here is the perfect opportunity for you to help us all recapture those fond memories of our events this past year, and to impress us with your 'framing the moment' talents. AND, because all of us are suckers for that good shot of our best profile, you should be prepared to take orders for reprints. If you are going to display works which might have broad appeal, number your works (if you have several), and put your name on them. Blank order forms will be provided which you may use, and although ordering might get confusing, we'll see how it goes, and take your suggestions for adjustments for next time around.
