WINE, MORE WINE, AND A FINE TIME

It was a glorious afternoon when seven boats gathered in Bear Neck Creek, off the Rhode River. Richard and Linda Lewis volunteered their roomy and gorgeous AEOLIA as party boat and our commodore snugged WIND DANCER alongside. There was a quick dinghy trip to the marina to pick up the first mate of BONKERS TWO who had driven down.. not wanting to miss the party. Hunter was laid up with a very bad back and preferred to snooze at home. SAVOIR FAIRE was anchored behind, and captain Norm had been enjoying a swim. The night before PAVANE and ARABESQUE had been in the West River where they enjoyed dinner together... but Ned and Fayla were reluctant to put their deep keel in the mud, so hitched a ride up to the party with the Hills. The Sherrers had their grandson Kyle on board and the big handsome guy spent a good part of the afternoon zooping about the anchorage in a dingy. He's a pretty expert boat handler! ACOMES, RHYTHM and TALISMAN dropped hooks and soon there was a cluster of dinghies off the party boat's stern.

Tom and Peggy produced big platters of cheese and crackers and two beautiful loaves of home-made bread (for cleansing the palate)... Each guest had a listing of 8 wines and was told to identify each of the wines tasted... What a challenge! Peggy produced small cups of wine and we all tasted and pondered and marked our ballots... Then a bit of cheese and bread... Then different cups of a different wine.... and more slurping and cogitating... more cheese and bread... much talk.... By the time the fourth wine was presented we were slugging down, smiling, puzzling... and definitely enjoying ourselves. Tom announced the winners and presented prizes and we all settled in to finish the wines and tried to make a dent in the huge chunks of great cheese.

Linda Lewis #1. An educated palate!

About this time an unfamiliar 29.9 swooped into the anchorage, circled around and asked where the party was. We beckoned PLAY'N'HOOKEY alongside where they tied up and joined the party. They had read about us on the new Web Page! Rob Welsh and Sandra Shearer were Captain and First Mate and Rob's sister, Pat, was Crew. About the time the official wine ran out, several more bottles made their appearance including Norm Bogarde's home-made wine.... which had been allowed to ferment a bit longer than the usual stuff... and turned out to be pretty potent! To give you an idea of the state of the revelers... one happy camper was concerned that the chunks of cheese should be wrapped up . . . "The cheese is getting warm and dry and moist.....!" It was a great party!

Beryl's Zucchini Squares

Source: Ship to Shore I by Jan Robinson

1 cup Bisquick
2 Tblsp. snipped parsley
1/2 tsp. oregano leaves

1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
1/2 tsp. salt & 1/2 tsp. butter salt (I omitted the butter salt)
Fresh ground pepper, to taste

3-4 small zucchinis, thinly sliced
1/2 cup vegetable oil
4 eggs
(no cholesterol ones OK too)

1 medium onion, chopped (red preferably)
1 large clove garlic, pressed (or chopped)

Combine the dry ingredients in a large bowl. In smaller bowl, stir together 4 eggs and vegetable oil. Mix wet and dry ingredients, then add zucchinis, onion and garlic. Spread in greased 9x13 pan. Bake until lightly browned, about 25 minutes at 350.

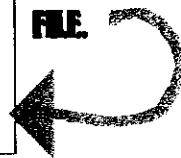

In addition to being a side dish for lunch or dinner, it cut diagonally into small diamond shapes, it will make several dozen delicious hot hors d'oeuvres.

Prep time: 15 minutes

Cook time: 20-25 minutes

MEMORIAL DAY CELEBRATION Lankford Bay off the Chester.

● Meet on Friday in Queenstown, then on Saturday, September 1, come up the Chester to Lankford Bay Marina for a great gathering.

SWIMMING

APPETIZER CONTEST

HOMEMADE ICE CREAM

Anchor out and dinghy in any time after noon and bring your favorite beverage, an appetizer, and your swim suit, Happy Hour will be at 4:30. Come prepared to vote for the best nibble in each category.

● That evening, if we want to go into Rock Hall to dine, we can call the Trolley Shuttle which will take us the 5 miles into town... and back again after dinner. That's pretty neat!

THIS IS A VERY DOG-FRIENDLY PLACE

..... so Cleo, Posey, Phoebe, Relay and Shelby are all welcome!

Sunday, hang out in Lankford Bay, take the trolley & explore Rock Hall or Chestertown, or cruise the Chester River. Relax, lie back, and enjoy!

● By Sea: Lankford Bay Marina is on Davis Creek near Cackaway Island. Follow the green markers into Lankford Creek keeping the fire observation tower dead ahead. When you reach the last green before Cackaway Island, turn to port and you'll see Lankford Bay Marina. Loon will monitor channel 09.

WOW ! DID WE EAT CRABS !

The mercury read 90+ that afternoon and it was soggily humid. When the crabs arrived, they were carefully placed outside as the Bay Ridge Clubhouse was really full! That wasn't a problem as it had been too hot for anyone to bring their doggies. Just as folks lined up and began collecting their crabs and shrimp the wind switched and the rains came. It poured! What a blessing! There was a big scramble to bring the crabs, shrimp, and corn inside; and those who scooped up things were rewarded for their efforts by getting soaked... which actually felt very good. Those big doors facing the lake blew open again. Seems like this happened not too long ago the same way!

Ruth Boecker helped at the check-in table, so she met everyone. The Flynns and the Pattersons helped Louise set-up and then clean up, Betsy and Ed Plitt were there, looking very good. It was their second

C.B.C. event this year and they are planning to attend more of our gatherings, now that Betsy has retired Good to see them. We were also delighted to see early members Charlie and Linda Dingman who now have enough time to come to some of our doings. . Also, Joe and Jay Heidel were there (recently returned from an Antiqua vacation) with sail mate Guy and his wife. Jay looked great and Joe's the same as always. Joe and Mike Nathans were teasing Marsha with mischievous plans for her upcoming year as Commodore. Watch out Marsha! The Segermarks brought two guests, and the Hamnetts had a couple of guests too.

Those crabs were the best ever! Patrick at Annapolis Seafood gave us a very good deal. (Crabs were running $196 a bushel.) The crabs were huge and heavy and meaty and really yum! It was a lively and noisy group and everyone really relished stuffing themselves with that great seafood and hot corn and sampling the pot-luck array of foods and deserts, including four types of potato salad. Nothing went to waste (only to waist) with that large crowd. There were only a few of the huge jimmys left over, but the shrimp was totally devoured. As Dessert time approached, Logan Hottle brought out a huge cake for her hubby, Will, and Carol Johnson who were celebrating their birthdays.

The crews of three boats braved the heat: RUSTY RIG with Dick Jr and friend Paul, LIGHTFOOT with John and Mary Anne, and CHANTEY with Joel and Tom. No TALISMAN? This is the first event that Bill and Beryl ave driven to in a long time. Just too hot, plus the Bay Bridge was closed Saturday morning for 5 hours due to a chemical leak and they couldn't get to their boat early enough.

Thanks to Louise and Mal Mellington for handling this event so well.. after returning from their big cruise to Alaska. (Not on DARK STAR)

Dave Hamnett, Andy Lewis, guests of the Hamnetts, & Wendy

A big three cheers for the many helpers who scrubbed and polished after the party. and a special cheer for the Flynns. I'm sure most folks don't realize how much work Bill and Beryl put in to make our land parties a success. They have done a great job, storing and lugging around the supply boxes and replacing supplies that run short. We must find someone to take over this job for next year and give them a bit of a rest. .

It was a great party.. with delicious food, great company and spectacular weather for even more entertainment. The C.B.C. certainly does have fun !

or talk to Norm Bogarde.

Leave your workaday world behind and join a leisurely C.B.C. FALL CRUISE down the bay. The group will meet in the Rhode River on Friday night, September 14, planning to get an early start for the long run to Solomon's Island on Saturday. From there on it is a loose schedule of exploration along the Western shore.

There will be a VHF conference each morning at 9:00 a.m. to decide the activities of the day. If you can join the cruise somewhere along the way hail us on Channel 9 to verify the location of the flotilla. The flotilla will monitor 9 all day. Plan to join us for a few days if you can't make the entire cruise. The winds are usually better in September and we plan a truly non pressured and laid back cruise.

A VERY LOOSE AND TENTATIVE ITINERARY FOR THE C.B.C. FALL CRUISE...SUBJECT TO CHANGE BY CONSENSUS OF THE FLOTILLA
