JULY 2005

THE MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND ON THE WYE WAS A WOW! It was a beautiful weekend and a few boats came to Granary Creek early to get a head start on the proceedings. WHIPPERSNAPPER, RHYTHM, SAVOIR FAIRE, and WIND DANCER dropped their hooks on Friday evening and everyone gathered on shore for supper under the trees. On Saturday BELLA VITA, ACOMES, LOLIGO, BRISTOL CREAM III, and CHANTEY sailed in to the party. There was also the usual Boecker raft of DAPHNE and RUSTY RIG . The beautiful BRIAN BORU, a Bristol 51.1, with new members Jim and Mary Dugan and a son and daughter, impressed us all! George and Clay Thomas drove in and were welcomed aboard RHYTHM for the night. There was a great cookout on Saturday night, complete with campfire. Doc & Carol Johnson had their son Mark aboard with them and his wife and kids came on Monday to pick him up. Ted & Carol Reinhold had one of their 4 sons, his wife and three kids visiting for the games. Al and Look who's dancin' !

Helen Powell just didn't have time to get AVALON ready for the junket so they drove down. Tom Outerbridge brought his son Michael to join the fun. The well traveled EASTING DOWN is now on the market. We have missed her. The games were the usual hilarious contests of "skill" but The Bevy of Boecker Beauties were the hands-down winners of the games. (disproving the theory that old age and treachery will trump youth and beauty every time.) Perhaps that Eastport Punch had something to do with the results. Dinner was the usual sumptuous buffet table of galley goodies and the barbecued Chicken and beans were great!

After dinner Dan Wilson entertained everyone with great songs, tales and the drawing out of unsuspected talent from the audience. We appear to have some skilled sign-linguists amongst us. Clean up time... most efficient. Then to bed for a cozy night's sleep.

Monday was the morn to depart for home or head out for the summer cruise. It was a lovely day to end a lovely weekend.

Many thanks to all who helped make the games and the party such a success.

On Monday, folks began to depart for home, but a group of seven craft headed out for Dun Cove and the start of the summer cruise. The Captain and Crew of CHANTEY, anxious to get going, decided that they would just head straight down the Bay for Solomon's Island. That night found PAVANE, WHIPPERSNAPPER, WIND DANCER, BELLA VITA, SAVOIR FAIRE and RHYTHM in Dun Cove and joined by BONKERS TWO. The Kennards had been pretty badly under the weather the week before and just couldn't quite make it to the Wye weekend, and were delighted to at last be aboard.

The second day was the long run to Solomon's but by mid-afternoon we were all at anchor in Mill Creek. Joel and Tom had "cased the joint" and had talked to Frank McCabe and arranged for us to meet at Stoney's for crab cakes. BONKERS TWO was taxi boat and the docking maneuver at the restaurant was roundly applauded by the diners on the deck. Of course having about six good crew members didn't hurt at all! The crabcakes were scrumptious !

The next day the Reinholds, the Sherrers, and the Johnsons motored up to St. Leonards creek and the four other boats went under the bridge to the "other" Mill Creek. Thursday was a typical gray Chesapeake day, with hints of rain, but at 10 a happy group from Mill Creek and another from St. Leonards went up river and sought out the landing for Sotterly Plantation. The water depth seemed iffy, but there is a nice new dock, with about 10 feet of water, to tie up to. A walk of about a mile led to the plantation and we had a great tour of the buildings and strolled the beautiful gardens., ate our BYO lunches at a picnic table on an outbuilding porch, and had a nice walk back to our "taxis". Astonishingly enough, we had no rain at all! That night we had a festive happy hour aboard RHYTHM as that was the night before we would part company, with four boats headed farther South and the rest headed back up the Bay.

Friday was a pretty grim scene, with gray skies and a lot of wind from the East. It was a real bash out to Cedar Point, but BELLA VITA, SAVOIR FAIRE, BONKERS TWO, tucked themselves into a lovely cove in Smith Creek, having carefully avoided the shoals on all sides of the entry. It was so lovely there, and the weather had turned out so fine that a lay day was declared so Norm could do a little fishing, Shirley and Hunter could try out their new dinghy and motor, the gals could do a little shopping and and ice run (with an ice cream gift for the guys)

Sharon, Shirley & Sandra

WIND DANCER joined them there. Poor Frank Arsenault somehow managed to run his dinghy over a shoal, shearing a pin, which he returned to the raft to fix, with a borrowed tool. He started off again and , (like Joe Bpfsplk), did the whole thing over again ! That just wasn't his day.

The next day they moved across the Potomac to the Yeocomico, The water was so lovely that Sandra and Peggy bobbed around for ages. That night we had a great happy hour aboard WIND DANCER with musical hors d'oeuvres.

Happy hour on Wind Dancer

The next day was the parting of the ways. BELLA VITA and BONKERS TWO headed South to the Wycomico while WIND DANCER and SAVIOR FAIRE headed off for Crisfield, and then North. The rest of the cruise was marked by magnificent weather, (one rain squall late a night) and incredible winds from the South and SW. 20 K on your stern quarter and abeam makes for exciting sailing. The Kennards returned home on the 13th after three magnificent sailing days. BELLA VITA hopes to join us on the 4th of July after a really extensive junket in the southern Bay. We were sorry to miss the party at our Commodore's home.. the reports were tremendous, and will follow!

AN ALMOST PERFECT PARTY

Sailors Rest was the scene of a terrific party on Saturday, June 11. The weather was beautiful: not too hot, not too breezy and not too cool. The lawn sloping down to the Magothy was green and lush and folks gathered there for happy hour and a gathering of lots of new and old friends. David and Paula Frankel were back from their extensive cruise to the Bahamas and Mickey Doran brought his wife, Scott, to meet the CBC. Jim Philpott, the Trumps, and the Coons were our newest members at the party, and the rest were lots of "old-timers" . Two generations of Boeckers,

Dave and Rebecca Burka, whose TARWATHIE is still on the hard, Tom and Peggy Carey, Warren and Carol Johnson, Marge and Paul Kavanaugh, Noel and Carol Patterson and cousins Rick and Anne Segermark, Al and Helen Powell, and Ned & Fayla Sherrer and our favorite Kathy Lewis. At one point in the evening, host Ted called upon Logan Hottle to give him a consultation on how his canvas sail cover could accommodate lazy jacks. In the midst of their conversation someone closed the umbrella on the deck, and Ted shepherded

Logan back to the solarium. To Logan's surprise there awaited a large birthday cake complete with 60 candles! Will had cagily planned the whole thing and brought along the ice cream to go with the cake for a real birthday party!. It was a great occasion.

There were only four boats at anchor, and the only sour note of the whole weekend was the engine on BEAUTIFUL DREAMER. It refused to start. Period. Wendy and Dave Hamnett called Towboat US and got towed all the way back to Jabins. Happily, their insurance took care of almost 100% of the costs. Thank you Commodore Ted and hostess Carol for a really great shore party.

The Birthday Girl.

Lost and Found: A pair of Rayban sunglasses, a metal serving spoon, a 4 cup Ziplock food container and a Rubbermaid 2 quart dish have been found after the recent shore party at the Reinholds. If they are yours, please call Carol or Ted. at 410-544-3218

It was a great party!

*Coming up this weeked! Something really special! Deck out yourselves and your boat and come!
This will be great fun!~ prizes too!*

come aboard AVALON at 4:00 p.m to start the festivities!

* The neat Hawaiian Flyer was done by Al and Helen Powell ! Isn't it great ?

CELEBRATE INDEPENDENCE DAY

On Saturday, the 2nd of July, cruise up the Chester to the Corsica River and drop a hook or raft up. The weekend will start with Happy Hour @ 5 PM aboard the Reinholds' boat, RHYTHM, in the Corsica River, Lat 39 04 25 Long 76 07 15.

On Sunday we'll move to Davis Creek off Langford Creek . At 6 PM the trolley has been alerted for our call to take us over to the Segermarks' LAST RESORT in her slip (slot 3) at the "Sailing Emporium" in Rock Hall. From this great vantage point we'll listen to the big band concert and watch the spectacular fireworks that will be set off from Rock Hall jetty.

Bring your own beverages and snacks to share, and join the great Independence Day Celebration. After the fireworks, we will hop on the trolley for our trip back to the Lankford Marina parking lot at Davis Creek.

If you wish to come by land on Sunday, drive to the Sailing Emporium marina in Rock Hall. If you have any questions or need directions call Ted Reinhold 410-279-1683.
