A FUN FIREWORKS-FILLED FOURTH FORAY...

Saturday, June 30

RHYTHM, LOLIGO and LAST RESORT met up the Corsica River in the basin by Emory Creek. It was a beautiful spot, quiet and comfortable. Ted and Carol Reinhold were hosting their son Bruce and his three kids: McKenzie, Amy and Will on Rhythm. As they kids are great water sprites, they were taking full advantage of the dinghy as well as enjoying the big boat.

Sunday, July 1

LOLIGO headed for home as Ken was expected at the office on Monday morning. ouch! The Reinholds headed for Davis Creek and caught the trolley to Rock Hall to enjoy the Waterman's Contests.

BONKERS TWO left home about 10 a.m. to find a wild north wind and a foul tide which made for a real bash up to Love point, but a wonderful sail down the Chester River. The Kennards arrived in Davis Creek about 5:00 and enjoyed Happy Hour on RHYTHM, which was securely ensconced on a mooring as was LAST RESORT. ACOMES, who had also left at ten, but had a longer slog up the Bay, pulled in about 7:30 or so. Logan and Will hustled Relay ashore and back and then joined the party. Happy Hour became Happy Hours and there were very late dinners for all. The night was actually chilly and blankets on the berths felt really good!

Monday, July 2

The Segermarks dropped their mooring in the morning and headed back to Rock Hall to prepare for guests at the fireworks. Everyone else slept late, enjoying the great weather. Hunter and Shirley took a long dinghy ride up the creek, just exploring the area, and finding a couple of interesting houses and boats along the way. Ted wanted to download something or check his e-mail, so RHYTHM left Davis Creek and poked along in fluky winds in Langford creek to Cacaway island and back and found some wireless near the Rock Hall Yacht club on Lawyers Cove, one creek down. Mission accomplished, they returned to their mooring.

During lunch hour, Logan's brother, Chuck, and his grandson Steve, came visiting via Boston Whaler from the yacht club, where they run the sailing program. They bid a hasty farewell to return to the next batch of kids they were teaching. Shirley left Sir Hunter Napsalot aboard and managed to motor the dinghy ashore in search of bread. Successful ride, but no bread.

CHANTEY steamed in during the afternoon. BONKERS TWO was party boat from 6-9 that evening. Late dinners again.

Not as cool that night.

Tuesday, July 3

Another very lazy morning with early mist on the water and dew on everything. The weather was cool, sunny and beautiful. RHYTHM'S kids hurried off to the swimming pool. Ted and Carol relaxed in their easy chairs on the back "Veranda". Shirley sat in the dinghy manufacturing an eye in the dinghy painter. Will and Logan had found their anemometer cups weren't spinning and the steaming light was out, so they rigged up a carabiner climbing gadget on the mast and took turns going up to repair things. Wonderful entertainment for the rest of the sailors. Much applause. At six sharp we were gathered on shore awaiting the trolley. We waited and waited, but at last we had our ride to the Sailing Emporium.

Rich and Anne and daughter Suzanne had set up a table and chairs on the lawn near LAST RESORT and we enjoyed nibbles and drinks until the start of the fireworks.

Tom and Joel had gone down to the pier to hear the Navy Band, but the rest of us had a fantastic view of the fireworks display. After about 30 minutes there was a very long pause in the show, and many, many people picked up their chairs and headed for their cars. Patience and a certain bit of laissez faire and in a little while we were treated to the rest of the show, and the usual spectacular finale. Rich was overjoyed and shouted "Boom. Boom, Boom!" at each display. Rich and Anne were great hosts as we celebrated Independence Day.

A rapid trolley ride home and another comfortable night's sleep.

Wednesday, July 4

RHYTHM pulled out early headed for Whitehall Bay and a view of the Annapolis Fireworks. BONKERS TWO stopped at the pump-out station and found the dock four feet below the deck. A bit of gymnastics and the job was accomplished. ACOMES followed her out of Langford, hoisted sail and tacked down the Chester. The Kennards rolled out the genny at the turn and had a great sail up to Love Point. As BONKERS doesn't point worth anything without the main, they cranked it up as they headed down toward the bridge. It was a great sail and as time passed the wind got stronger and stronger and it became a real bash to get home. After such a strenuous day they decided to bypass Whitehall Bay and head for Ridout Creek and home. ACOMES decided to join them rather than bash a lot more to get to their abode. Some carryout ribs and fixin's were a great finish to the long weekend.

RHYTHM reported that the fireworks were great and the kids really enjoyed them. It was fun having some neat young folks along on our cruise.

We had great sailing, no sailing, cold nights, warm nights, long happy hours, time to fix stuff, and a great time!

VIN, VINO, WINE.... WHATEVER! IT'S GREAT!

There were 12 boats in all at the CBC Wine Tasting in Shaw Bay. BRISTOL CREAM III was at anchor when we came into Shaw Bay on Friday evening and Bruce & Janet George and their 2 grandchildren came aboard for a short Happy Hour on TROUVAILLE. Our friends Dennise Fath and Rod Swank aboard EUPHORIA arrived next and rafted up with us. They sail out of Annapolis. Next was CRAZY HORSE with Rosemary and Bill Thomas, who are from Maryland Yacht Club. Let's hope that both of these couples will be joining CBC, Later that evening RHYTHM anchored, but we didn't see Ted and Carol until the next morning. On Saturday, which was a pretty windy day, the other boats that anchored in Shaw Bay were DARK STAR, (Mal and Louise Mellington), WILDFLOWER (Fred & Jan Flowers), SUMMER SONG, (Noel & Carol Patterson) WIND DANCER, Tom & Peggy Carey) LAST RESORT, Rich & Anne Segermark & their daughter Suzanne) and CHANTEY. (Joel Gross and Tom Finnin) LOLIGO motored by but didn't stay. Deb and Ken Coons called to say their anchor was giving them problems and the wind was strong so they went on up to Dividing Creek. They were missed at the tasting!

Everyone brought fabulous appetizers over to TROUVAILLE and EUPHORIA. Rod, Dennise, Bill, and Rosemary helped with the dinghy's and the overflow of people. TROUVAILLE just doesn't have a large cockpit and there were 25 people between the two boats.

We, the Thrashers, stayed over Sunday night and met DARK STAR and SUMMER SONG in Dividing Creek. It was a great evening with lighter wind and gave us a chance to get to know Mal, Louise, Noel, and Carol better.

Dianne neglected to mention that they had decorated Trouvaille with grape vines, corks, and other most festive and appropriate wine things, and had organized a great contest for everyone. The winners are as follows:

1. Rosemary and Bill Thomas.....CRAZY HORSE
2. Rod Swank..... EUPHORIA
3. Carol and Ted Reinhold.....RHYTHM
4. Suzanne Segermark.....LAST RESORT

All I can say is WE HAD A BLAST!

Joel tries a wine on EUPHORIA

On the Tuesday after the wine tasting party, Dianne rushed Denny to the hospital at two in the morning. He was having severe heart distress.

After they had stabilized him and done tests it was determined that he would have to have bypass surgery, as he had three badly clogged arteries. The Surgery was performed on Monday and Dianne reported on Tuesday that Denny is doing just GREAT! He is in good health except for the heart problems, so he will be coming home in a few days.

This is really good news.

We all wish him the speediest recovery and that every day in every way he will be closer to the time when he will be back at the helm of TROUVAILLE.

A new address for Tom and Nancy Trump:

Tom Carey has also been in the Hospital and has had several surgical procedures to patch up things inside. This has been a very bad time for Tom and Peggy, but the good news is that no Cancer was found. He is getting back to his old self and we hear he is at home and Peggy is caretaker.

All of us send our very best wishes for your speedy recovery and a return to your old self!

JANE RAYMOND LOST A SMALL "ICEPACK" AT THE RIDOUT CREEK SHORE PARTY. PERHAPS SOMEONE WHO WAS THERE NOW HAS AN EXTRA ONE. IF SO, JANE WOULD LOVE TO HAVE IT BACK AGAIN.

AUGUST 4, ASHORE!

The air was like a sauna Bath the morn of August Fourth
Two brave boats dropped their hooks in Ridout Creek.

Many more had planned to venture forth
but nixed a sweltering trip on the Chesapeake.

So out came the land yachts, equipped with cool air that carried 34 more Bristoleers to Black Forest Road.
The crews of PAVANE and Last Resort trudged up the stair to the waterfront lawn of the Kennards' abode.

In the dappled shade of some very big trees were lots of chairs and tables on the lawn

In spite of the absence of a nice cool breeze
The drinking and chatting and laughing went on.

The Bogardes brought a wonderful treat;
buckets of blackberries from their home for the taking
They were wonderful to just pop in your mouth and eat
And were toted home for some wonderful baking.

The cooks went to work when three grilles were ignited
Soon Steaks and hotdogs and hamburgers were roasting,
And the buffet table served up fare that delighted,
and all settled down to feasting and toasting!

Commodore Will made a presentation to Raftmaster Norm who had missed this year's sunflower with a rather bum arm
 Though he and Sandra found the gifts rather warm,
 The Hottles' "cheeseburger" hats fit like a charm.
 After barking that parties were right down her line,
 New pup Lily joined the gang for a bit.
 There were ten drops of rain, which really felt fine
 but the partying paused not one whit.
 We missed Tom Carey and Denny Thrasher too,
 They've had major surgery and a hospital stay.
 We sent much, much love from the CBC crew.
 We want both of them back soon on the Bay
 Though folks were missing their beloved yachts
 In spite of the heat and the blazing sun
 Logan Hottle took these terrific photo shots
 To show you all our boatloads of fun.
