

CHESAPEAKE BRISTOL CLUB

VOLUME 35 ISSUE 10
APRIL 2009

1 A REMINDER: FOLKS ! PLEASE SEND IN YOUR DUES AND DIRECTORY CHANGES. A.S.A.P.

The 2009 directory will be handed out at the Spring Luncheon and I know you'd like to have the correct profile of you, your family and your boat included.

Please check the 2008 directory and see what changes there may be since it was published last year. If you don't get your personal information changes in by April 19, we will publish with whatever data we have on file and you may miss some important announcements, calls and e-mails !

2 YOU HAVE PROBABLY RECEIVED THE SUMMER SCHEDULE FOR THIS SEASON. ISN'T IT GREAT ?

Our Commodores and Trustees have done a marvelous job, but I know they would really appreciate any volunteers who can help out with some of the events. Just give a call and tell them you're willing to help.

3 A NOTE FROM THE BOGARDES IN FEBRUARY FROM DOWN SOUTH.

Here are a few pics of the Maddens, Johnsons, and Bogardes enjoying SMURDLOD (we don't have doldrums here) in Naples. The interior pics were at our coach home in Naples and the beach shots were at Lovers Key. Warren also took some which may turn out to be nicer. You'll probably see the Maddens soon, they reluctantly are flying home today. There are lots of little get-togethers here and there all "season" down here.

Norm just caught a nice big-mouthed bass in the little lake 15' from our unit so I had to take a picture for him. Thank goodness it wasn't the alligator he saw a couple of weeks ago nearby! We're running off to the Conservancy in a little while to take a break from 2 days of beach and sun. We're getting up to 80 today. Hang in there, it will warm up eventually up there.

Fondly,
Sandra

4 SOME WONDERFUL READING FOR ALL OF YOU SAILORS.

5 MEANWHILE . . . . . IN MARATHON

Six CBCer's met to celebrate the winter doldrums at the Adensam's for a brief libation before departing for the Dockside, a typical Keys tiki bar/grill, for dinner. It was roast beef night and several members enjoyed the special while listening to the LOUD music of "Moose." Joining in were Ted and Carol Reinhold (RHYTHM), Paul and Marge Kavanaugh (BROAD ARROW), and Tom and Elinor Adensam (MERIDIAN). While at the Dockside, they were joined by Al and Arleen Mauger who are aboard their Bristol 41.1 BLUE HEAVEN in Boot Key Harbor. They are on their first trip south and usually keep BLUE HEAVEN in Rock Hall. Some heavy recruiting went on. Everyone had a great meal and enjoyed the music and the company.

6 AND SOMEWHERE IN THE CARIBBEAN . . .

Janet and Bruce George, Tom and Nancy Trump, Rich and Anne Segermark, and Marge and Paul Kavanaugh sailed away on the beautiful Royal Clipper for a beautiful adventure. There were too many pictures and memories to show you here, but they all had a fabulous time, and were not sure they wanted to come back home!

p.s. The food was far too good too !

7 AND UP NORTH ON RIDOUT CREEK.... THEY CELEBRATED DOLDRUMS.....

Joel Gross and Tom Finnin arrived bearing some magnificent Cheese and other yummy appetizers, and the Raymonds arrived with a tremendous platter of deviled eggs. Bruce made sure that everyone knew that HE was the chef that produced the dish as Jane was hard at work all day. Bruce and Janet arrived a bit early with the second crockpot of Louisiana Beef Stew to augment the one simmering in the Kennard Kitchen. They also brought along some beautiful shrimp for nibbling while imbibing and they were a real hit! Sharon Arsenault brought some sinfully chocolaty brownies and Frank was adorned with a marvelous weighted wine "glass" that swung happily around his neck (leaving hands free for all kinds of mischief !) Noel and Carol Patterson arrived with a beautiful big green salad, and Deb and Ken Coons brought a slightly different assortment of greens and goodies to fill the big wooden bowl. Shirley had popped two big casseroles of rice into the oven. The dinner bell was rung somewhere around seven , and plates were filled with rice and stew and salad, and soon everyone was seated to enjoy the feast. (except Lily who prowled about pleading for a goodie or two from the table) Bruce George took great pictures of the gathering. He is a real pro and certainly got everyone at their cheeriest.

There was a call from Marathon with the lustily sung "Happy Doldrums to you, happy doldrums to you....." as we were all settled in for dinner, but it was great to hear from Ted and Carol and the "Southern CBC"

The dessert table was set in the kitchen so everyone could help themselves to a fantastic assortment of goodies: two distinctive rum cakes from Clary Thomas and Margaret Madden, and an Almond encrusted cake from Scott Doran, and Sharon's brownies.

There was much great talk and camaraderie and quite a few wine and beer bottles and cans found their way to the recycling bin by the end of the evening. It had been much too warm, surprisingly, to have an open fire, but there was nothing at all "doldrums" about the evening. Cleanup went likety-split, and everyone went home full and happy.

WE SENT MICKEY HOME TO PONDER THE PURCHASE OF HIS "NEW" BOAT!
