THE ANNUAL CBC CRAB FEAST AT THE BAY RIDGE CLUBHOUSE

was the usual marvelous event, with quantities of great dishes from the attendees' galleys, great spirits (of all kinds) and great company (see the list at the left!). The corn was sweet and hot, and the shrimp was succulent! The crabs this year were indeed big and fat and delicious and everyone ate their fill. Noel Patterson was the last to finish, as he was in seventh heaven picking and devouring a mountain of crab! Of course he richly deserved it for his work in arranging for and helping Dave and Rebecca set up everything in the Clubhouse.

It was so good to see George and Clary Thomas up and about after their serious medical problems not long ago. Of course George says "Couldn't be worse!" but we just don't believe him.

What a delight to see Kathy Lewis again. She looked terrific. It has been quite a while since she has visited with us and we do miss her.

The cleanup crew (everyone) did a very efficient job of returning the clubhouse to a pristine condition with all the trash, shells, towels, cups etc. neatly stuffed into big black bags. The CBC leaves everywhere ship-shape and Bristol fashion.

If you want to get a true flavor of the gathering, get on to the web site, www.cbclub.info, and click on the video that Ted Reinhold took during the event.

A grand total of 44 folks had a wonderful time.

A FINE DAY IN OCTOBER

The morning was rainy, overcast and gloomy and it didn't seem auspicious for an outdoor party. Just one boat sailed into Mill Creek and dropped anchor near the Providence marina and came ashore for the Octoberfest. TALISMAN was very welcome as Bill and Beryl were the bringers of the "wurst" for the everyone. Lo and behold, in the afternoon the clouds faded away and the sun shone down on the yellow covered picnic tables, and a gentle breeze ruffled the leaves of the trees. We were indeed being smiled on!

Scott and Mickey Doran had set up the inside of the Providence Community building with three long buffet tables, plates, flatware wrapped in napkins, and spectacular dishes of Sauerkraut, German Potato Salad, Beets, Pickles, and a big platter for the Wurst, and a spot for a Crock Pot of Red Cabbage.

Mickey was on duty at the grille producing the plump, steaming and browned sausages for everyone.

Tom Trump had brought some Mini-kegs of good German beer and both red and white wines and a CD player with many, many records of German band music which really added to the "authenticity" of the occasion.

Margaret and Peter Madden were there but minus Sam. That sausage might have been too enticing.) Shirley and Hunter Kennard, Tom Trump, Ruth and Dick Boecker, Doc and Carol Johnson brought along a son and daughter in law, Val and Jane Taliaferro brought along a son. Frank and Sharon Arsenault came over after a day of getting their BELLA VITA ready for her prospective new owner. Nancy and Frank McCabe were a bit late arriving, but they have a long drive to get to Annapolis. Janet and Bruce George, Tom Finan, Joel Gross and Ted Reinhold completed the feasters. (Carol was playing hookey that day, as she was up watching a game played by a grandchild. She has her priorities right! We did miss her.)

We all just savored the great food on the lawn and enjoyed the beautiful view out to Whitehall Bay and watching boats thread the needle entering Mill Creek.

Then it was time for dessert!

Scott had produced two fantastic and sinful Chocolate Cakes, cherries to accompany each slice, and real Apple Strudel. There were baskets of pfefferneuse, chocolate chip cookies and brownies as well. After dessert Dick Boecker passed around some tiny cups and poured each of us a dollup of a German liqueur. What a fantastic finish for German feast!

WE ALL WENT HOME FAT AND HAPPY.

THE BOAT SHOW CAME APART LIKE CLOCKWORK... PERHAPS JUST A BIT SYNCOPATED....

The hosts were the Hottles, who reserved the Marriot room long ago to make sure the club got a prime spot.... and succeeded!

The attendees were: the Georges with Janet's sister Carol-Ann Hall who was visiting from Maine and a granddaughter, Astoria Aviles, who also had joined us at the crab feast.

Carol and Ted Reinhold, armed with tiny video camera to record the whole proceedings. See his video on our web site.

Joel Gross, Tom Finnin, and Tom's brother Robert. Elinor and Tom Adensam, Jim and Joan Philpott, Dave Crossland: a new member who is hoping to be more active in our doings, Tom Trump, Pete Madden solo as Margaret was at home keeping Sammy company.

There were two other guests, Jimmie Mackey and Suky Cannon, who had dropped anchor on their catamaran, VISION, in Almshouse Creek and had come ashore for the community dock party. Suky had worked at the show making sure the tents on the docks were still upright and calling for any needed repairs. Our hospitable hosts, the Hottles, invited them to join the CBC teardown party. and they were delighted to do so.

Will and Logan did the drawing for the overnight in the room and, believe it or not, the Reinholds name came out! This is their secon win! Logan asked Will if they should draw again and he said no--he wasn't going to fix it!

The highlight of the evening was the Annapolis Yacht Sales broker who was in the rigging throwing frisbees to the crowd. He finally pitched on to the third floor and Jimmie Mackey was the one who caught it on our balcony. Others were throwing frisbees as well but none made it to the third floor! You can see all of this fun on Ted's video.

On Thursday, Oct. 15th the Capital had an article about a photo competition held by the Shady Side Rural Heritage Society, to feature South County and the Bay and with each shot taken over the course of the summer. Out of 136 entries there were seven blue ribbon winners, and our own Bruce George was one of them. His wonderful picture, "The Harvest", is shown above. Congratulations to our talented fellow!

BIG BEAUTIFUL BOAT FOR SALE

Michael and Linda Hughes are hoping to sell their beautiful, recently upgraded and spruced up Bristol 41.1 soon so they can take possession of their new boat, a Hylas 49. Their DAPHNE is a beautiful craft, and has been listed with Yacht World. You can find all the details on their website.

If you are interested or know someone looking for a great boat, give the Hughes a call. Michael and Linda's phone is 301-829-8099

Hey, who's that old guy with the white beard doing ropework on the stern of his sailboat? If I had known I looked like The Ancient Mariner, I would have taken things a little slower and possibly avoided the heart attack! Thank you, Bristol Club, for your kind words and thoughts and the lovely natural arrangement that looks just perfect in that pesky space next to our kitchen phone. Virginia and I and INTERLUDE will be back in the spring.
