

WHAT A GLORIOUS OCTOBER DAY!

Can you imagine an Oktoberfest at picnic tables in the shade of a beautiful tree with a temperature reading of 90 degrees? That's what it was on the day of the German feast at the Providence Club. By three o'clock folks were gathering outside and in and revelling in the glorious weather and sampling the terrific German beers that were on ice in the clubhouse. Yum may not be a German word, but it was appropriate! We had a couple of unexpected surprises that day. Bob Lehner and Nancy Warner had come north from Florida and had checked the web site, called Scott Doran and pledged her to secrecy. The other couple that quietly joined the astonished group were Janet and Bruce George who had left their very cold Canadian cottage and were headed back down to the warmer climes of Florida. Before the dinner announcement there was a message from Bill and Beryl Flynn who had planned to arrive on their TALISMAN, but were having severe motor problems, and felt they must head back up the Bay. We missed them.

The bounteous buffet was opened after Commodore Bob had his turn at the grille and the luscious wursts were brought to the table. George and Clary Thomas have a special charcuterie where they can find these great sausages, and they also brought a wonderful kettle of Sauerkraut. There were buns and condiments, potato salad, and Frau Shirley Kennard brought her spicy red cabbage. This was accompanied by the great German beers and for dessert, apple Strudel and Linzertorte. The fantastic desserts were produced by Scott who had begun preparations way ahead!

There were quite a few folks enjoying the feast that are now landlubbers, alas, but enjoy their sailing vicariously through the sailing members: Frank and Sharon Arsenault, The Georges, and George & Clary Thomas. LAST RESORT was the only sailboat! It is easier for Rich and Anne Segermark to sail across from Rock Hall than to drive down from New Jersey! Jane and Val Taliferro brought their son Ryan to the gathering and Tom Finnin brought the lovely Annette Chang too. Bob Clopp joined Prue (after he did his Rotarian duty parking cars at the Stadium before the Navy game). Dick and Ruth Boecker, Tom and Elinor Adensam, Will an Logan Hottle, Margaret and Peter Madden, Ted and Carol Reinhold, and Marty and Joyce Suydam, Joel Gross, Mark and Colleen Johnson, all sat under the shade of a tree overlooking Mill Creek's opening onto Whitehall Bay. There was no dearth of wonderful conversation. to accompany the great food.

Folks left before the sun dropped down too far in the West, still marveling at the marvelous "summer" day for the Oktoberfest. Kudos to the Dorans, (especially Scott) who orchestrated the entire event as produced some marvelous food!

p.s. Via e-mail Scott learned that Bill and Beryl had sailed all the way home to the Patapsco but it took them nine hours!

Come pipe these folks aboard and give a hearty thank you for the great work our 2013 officers did to make this hyear such a success.

Your Editor is going away for a week to a family wedding and Mr. Hunny is going to be staying at Somerford Place where they will give him great care and attention but I know he will be lonely and missing home. People can visit him at any time. During the day the door is unlocked but after 6:00 p.m. you have to use the call box. It would be great if some of you could pay him a visit. He will be there Thursday, the 24th through Tuesday, the 29th.
