

IN THE EARLY AFTERNOON ON JANUARY 26TH a group of ten CBC sailors gathered for an afternoon of theater and supper. The 10 laughed throughout the play "Bad Date." In addition to the pictured Mickey & Scott Doran and Val and Jan Taliaferro there were Bob and Prue Clopp plus Deb and Ken Coons and Marty and Joyce Suydam who had great tales about their recent trip to Vietnam.

Everyone raved about their choice of dinner at Jalapeños. There was an unanimous agreement that we all needed to laugh more. Sorry the rest of you missed a great afternoon!

LATER ON, TO DISPEL THE GLOOM OF FEBRUARY

A delightful dozen CBCers gathered on a sunny Sunday, February 23rd, for the Third Annual Eggcellence Brunch. Commodore Val and Jane Taliaferro were joined by Mickey and Scott Doran, Paul and Marge Kavanaugh, Frank and Nancy McCabe, Marty and Joyce Suydam, along with hosts Ken and Deb Coons. Non-stop chatting meant everyone was catching up with each others' doings—including the McCabes' recent CBC sailing adventure in the BVI. But the highlight of the brunch was the annual What Is It/What Does It Do? Quiz instituted by those dearly missed new Florida residents, Bruce and Janet George.

With Mickey Doran in charge of the contest this year, the number of items swelled in number from one to eleven along with a commensurate increase in the degree of difficulty. The quiz items (gathered by Mickey and on short term loan from Bacon's Sails and Marine Supplies) that befuddled the gathering included a deadeye, a Lungstrum bailer, an articulating fairlead, and an anchor rode shoe. For some reason even a guide for a self-tailing winch was a puzzlement.

Though no one scored a perfect 100 (Mickey's hilarious impromptu judging was based on a "flexible" scoring system known only to the judge), not unexpectedly, the Kavanaughs scored highest. Their prize? "A Boat Breakfast in a Bag" to enjoy on a Broad Arrow sail this summer. As a consolation prize, everyone got to try their luck with a Maryland lottery ticket. We had four winners with a total take of ...drum roll please... $7! Better luck next year!

THE NAUTICAL PARTS PUZZLE,

1. Winch line guide
2. Anchor rode shoe
3. Universal fairlead
4. Dead eye
5. Ski line cleat
6. Maststep
7. Anchor line tensioner
8. Fender hanger
9. Engine mount
10. Lungstrum automatic bailer
11. Mickey can't remember the last one.

MEANWHILE. . . DOWN IN MARATHON, IN THE FLORIDA KEYS, these four CBCers, Ted & Carol and Tom and Elinor met for lunch in the kind of weather all the rest of us were pining for up Annapolis way.

Envy, envy! Send some of that sunshine up our way!

IN MARCH, ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE HELD A SKIPPERS RECEPTION FOR THOSE WHO HELPED WITH THE SAIL PICNIC FOR THEIR STUDENTS WHO GOT A WONDERFUL DAY ON THE WATER.

Unfortunately cold weather and distance kept some members away, but a half dozen CBCers who had signed up for the St. John's Student Sail Picnic last fall were able to make the Skippers Thank You Reception hosted by the Friends of St. John's College on March 4th. Committee Chair Esther Staff and College President Chris Nelson welcomed the guests with warm and appreciative words about the importance of the sail picnic to the students who have participated over the years. Representing the CBC were Ken and Deb Coons, Mickey and Scott Doran, and Peter and Margaret Madden. The evening also afforded an excellent opportunity to get to know fellow skippers and their crews from other clubs in the area.

It was great group and a great evening!
