

THE TWELFTH EVENT OF THE CHESAPEAKE BRISTOL CLUB (CBC) 2015 SEASON

SEPTEMBER 19-20,

was the St John's College Sail Picnic outing coordinated by Deb and Ken Coons. The Arnie Gay Memorial Sail Picnic took place on Saturday, September 19. Twelve boats took fifty-four students sailing and "gunkholing" on a beautiful day. In collaboration with Eastport Yacht Club (EYC) we had a combined fleet of 12 (10 sail, 2 power) boats with 54 "Johnnies" for a day. CBC captains and crews, Will and Logan Hottle's ACOMES, Tom Finnin with Joel Gross on CHANTEY, Marty Suydam's GALATA and Mickey Doran's SCUDDER, picked up St. John's students at the Annapolis Sailing Hall of Fame near the City Dock around 10 a.m. and sailed out on the Bay and returned to raftup in Whitehall Creek, near Ridout Creek.

The students brought picnic lunches for themselves and boat skippers and crews. After a bit more sail time the students were dropped back home around 4 p.m.

AND LATER

The afternoon was beautiful with a wonderful breeze and a bright blue sky so there had been great sailing. The four CBC boats then went into to Mill Creek where they were joined by Sandra & Norm Bogarde on SAVOIR FAIRE, Margaret and Peter Madden who drove in, Deb & Ken Coons who also drove in as did Carol & Ted Reinhold. Marty Suydam was joined by guest Ed Almes and all enjoyed great hors d'oeuvres and dinner at the new Providence Community Clubhouse. The wonderful supper was produced by Scott Doran.

THANK YOU SUCH DELICIOUS FARE, SCOTT!

THE THIRTEENTH PLANNED EVENT OF THE SEASON WAS TO BE THE FALL CRUISE TO BALTIMORE over September 25 to 27. The weather forecast was very grim on Friday so the members who planned to join the cruise concluded, very sensibly, they would travel to the planned events by 'land cruiser'. The Cruise Captains, Prue & Bob Clopp, hosted Logan & Will Hottle, Joyce & Marty Suydam, and guests Joanne & Jack Lahr at their house on the South River for Happy Hour and dinner. Everyone brought their dogs to the party. Charley, Ginny, Katie, & Winchester really enjoyed the evening too.

THE FALL "CRUISE"

On Saturday afternoon we 'motored' to Baltimore for a delicious dinner at La Tavola and attended the Everyman Theater for the play, "An Inspector Calls".

The six CBC members and their two guests made it an adventure by using Uber for taxis in Baltimore.

THE DINNER PARTY ON STAGE AT THE EVERYMAN THEATER

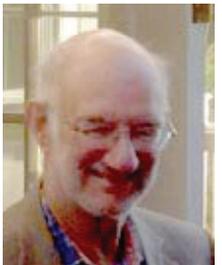

IT WAS A BEAUTIFUL DAY FOR OUR OCTOBERFEST: SUNNY ON THE DECK OF PRUE AND BOB'S BEAUTIFUL HOME ON THE SHORES OF BEARD CREEK OFF THE SOUTH RIVER.

Twenty nine CBC members and four guests gathered on the deck under big umbrellas for happy hour and wine tasting and to enjoy special German brews while munching on wonderful appetizers that were spread on the buffet table. Clary & George Thomas brought delicious Sauerkraut. Shirley was in a chorale performance that night but sent her Red Cabbage via Frank and Sharon Arsenault. Prue brought out the fat Wursts which Bob had grilled to perfection and everyone helped themselves to side dishes and deserts that filled the table. Will and Logan Hottle brought along a couple of guests: Logan's cousin, Jack Horner, and his wife, Judy. Charter members Ruth & Dick Boecker, son Dick Boecker, Jr., longtime members, Sandra & Norm Bogarde and Paul Kavanaugh, had some serious (?) conversations with old and new friends. Carol & Doc Johnson, especially enjoyed having Kathy Lewis back with us. Their son Mark and spouse Colleen joined Margaret and Peter Madden, Scott and Mickey Doran and Jane & Val Taliaferro in feasting in good German fashion (yum!). Tom Trump announced that after his great trans-Atlantic adventure he is selling the sturdy and truly tested CAPE DOCTOR. He can now join the other boatless members in talking about former sailing times. Carol & Ted Reinhold brought their lovely daughter Stephanie and Ted did his usual wonderful job of taking pictures and videos so we have no picture of him.

Commodore Marty Suydam gave a huge

Hurra (German for hurrah) to Prue and Bob for a great Oktoberfest celebration.

GOOD NEWS FROM JOEL GROSS

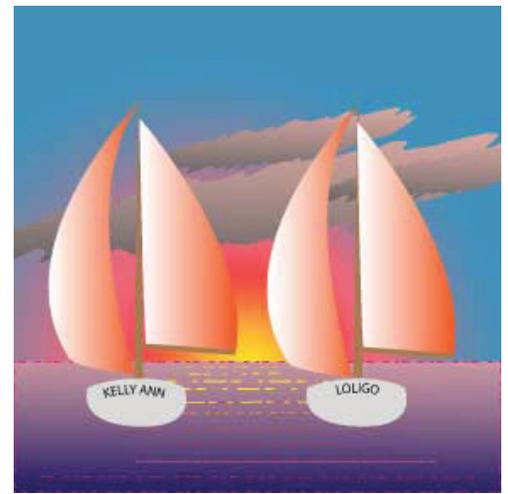

Nancy McCabe had been trying to locate a home for KELLY ANN where she would be loved and used, and asked for help in finding the right spot. Joel Gross did a lot of research and came up with the Magothy River Sea Scouts who were just the right place.

Sea Scouts is an organization started by YMCA well over 50 years ago and the Magothy River Sea Scouts are now sponsored by the YMCA in Frederick MD. Their base is a Private Dock at Turkey Point on the Magothy. There are 9 Adult supervisors and the young group is co-ed with ages ranging from 14 to 21 years. When the kids are adults they are trained to become Sea Scout Leaders.

There was a lot of paperwork that had to be shuffled and signed that required a lot of time and was handled by Doctor Fred Droadrup for Nancy. At last everything was ready and Joel and Tom Finnin were driven to Solomons to help Nancy bring the boat up to the Magothy. The two arrived in time to find the Solomons Yacht Club holding a spaghetti dinner which they feasted on before having an early bed time at the McCabe home.

They set sail at 6:00 October 8th and had lovely weather for the trip. There was still a bit of paperwork to be completed, and Steve Rogers graciously kept KELLY ANN in one of his marina slips until the 20th when Nancy, Joel and Tom waved farewell to her as she sailed for the new home on the Magothy in the capable hands of two blue water sailors from the Scouts. As she required more depth than the Turkey Point dock, a retired Sea Scout donated a slip for her new home.

The Scouts were thrilled to have the meticulously maintained KELLY ANN and all the service records, all instrumentations, dinghy, outboard, and all equipment, with the prop newly scraped and new zinc. Nancy and Joel and Tom felt that as KELLY ANN sailed away Frank was smiling, knowing that she was going to a home where she will be lovingly cared for, used and loved.

ANOTHER BOAT LEAVES US

Ken and Deb Coons have donated their LOLIGO to the Maritime Museum in St. Michaels, on the Eastern Shore. Health problems had meant that they had not been able to sail and enjoy her for some time and felt it was time to transfer to the "land yacht". We hope they will be at our CBC events on land with the rest of our boatless retired captains and crews.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE ARSENAULTS FOR THEIR RICHLY DESERVED AWARD

Annie Awards Recognize Seven Individuals for their Contributions to the Arts in Anne Arundel County

“Sharon and Frank Arsenault have been true unsung heroes of the local arts community by serving in a variety of Volunteer capacities for the Maryland Federation of Art, the Mitchell Gallery, and the Arts Council of Anne Arundel County for nearly the last four decades. Sharon and Frank have both served tirelessly in leadership and support positions at the Maryland Federation of Art by planning and facilitating exhibitions, marketing, expanding databases, and developing cloud technology. It was Sharon’s longstanding dedication to the Maryland Federation of Art, where she has served for decades as a Board Member and remains the current Exhibition Chair, which brought Frank into the fold with his technical wizardry to expand the reach and capabilities of three local arts associations in promoting local artists. Sharon and Frank are a living testament to how a power couple and their love for the arts can truly transform the local cultural landscape.”
